

For Immediate Release

Provo, UT – October 3, 2007

Dr. Steven Allison awarded Dimitrios Kostopoulos Endowed Chair in Evidence-based Practice.

Rocky Mountain University of Health Professions is pleased to announce that Professor Steven C. Allison, PT, PhD has been awarded the Dimitrios Kostopoulos Endowed Chair in Evidence-based Practice. Dr. Allison currently holds faculty appointments at Rocky Mountain University of Health Professions, Elon University, and Baylor University. He is a nationally known speaker and an expert on the integration of research evidence with healthcare practice. This is the first endowed chair established at the University, and recognizes Dr. Allison's research and teaching which impact all academic programs at RMUoHP. Dr. Kostopoulos received his Doctor of Science degree in clinical electrophysiology from RMUoHP, his PhD from New York University, and is co-owner of Hands-On Physical Therapy, based in New York City.

About Rocky Mountain University of Health Professions:

RMUoHP offers post-graduate degrees in healthcare, including doctoral programs for athletic trainers, physical therapists, nurses, occupational therapists, and other healthcare providers and educators. RMUoHP's programs follow a unique, non-traditional model that enables students to complete advanced degrees without relocating. Curricula emphasize specialized education in advanced clinical, research, and academic areas.

For more information on this event or Rocky Mountain University of Health Professions, please call toll free 866-780-4107, visit www.rmuohp.edu, or email office@rmuohp.edu.