Provo, UT – April 30, 2010

Rocky Mountain University of Health Professions (RMUoHP) appoints Medical Librarian.

RMUoHP has appointed Joy Harriman, MBA, MS/LIS as Medical Librarian. Harriman has worked for over 20 years in the health care industry in library and information management, staff development, marketing, training, and research. Previously, she was associated with Texas Tech University Health Sciences of the Permian Basin, located in Odessa, Texas. From 2008 to 2009, she served as the Director of Development. From 2002 to 2008, Harriman was Associate Director for the Library of the Health Sciences and adjunct faculty in the Physician Assistant Program.

Harriman graduated from the University of West Florida, Florida State University, and the University of South Alabama. She holds a B.A. in Journalism and Communication Arts, an M.L.S. and an M.B.A. Harriman also holds a distinguished level of certification from the Academy of Health Information Professionals.

Harriman's book, Creating Your Library's Business Plan: A How-To-Do-It Manual with Samples on CD-ROM, was released March 2008, by Neal-Schuman Publishers, Inc.

About Rocky Mountain University of Health Professions:

RMUoHP offers doctoral degrees for current and future healthcare providers and educators, including athletic trainers, nurses, occupational therapists, physical therapists, exercise physiologists, and chiropractors. RMUoHP offers both non-traditional and traditional residential models. RMUoHP's non-traditional model enables students to complete advanced degrees without relocating. Curricula emphasize specialized education in advanced clinical, research, and academic areas. RMUoHP's residential Doctor of Physical Therapy (DPT) degree program begins in May 2010.
