RMUoHP to host 4th Annual Evidence-Based Practice Symposium.

On July 31, 2009, Rocky Mountain University of Health Professions will host the 4th Annual Evidence-based Practice Symposium in Provo, Utah. The Utah Physical Therapy Association will grant six Continuing Education Units to each qualified attendee. Those present will hear lectures by Stephen C. Allison, PhD, PT; Marthe J. Moseley, PhD, RN, CCRN, CCNS; Rebecca D. Reder, OTD, OTR/L; and Craig R. Denegar, PhD, PT, ATC. RMUoHP's Director of Research, Mitch Rauh, PhD, PT, commented, "This program offers a great blend of renowned speakers to discuss evidence-based practice issues in a multi-health profession symposium." To register for the symposium, contact Krystal Downs at kdowns@rmuohp.edu or 801.734.6846.

About Rocky Mountain University of Health Professions:

RMUoHP offers doctoral degrees for current and future healthcare providers and educators, including athletic trainers, physical therapists, nurses, and occupational therapists. RMUoHP's non-traditional model enables students to complete advanced degrees without relocating. Curricula emphasize specialized education in advanced clinical, research, and academic areas. RMUoHP is currently developing a residential Doctor of Physical Therapy (DPT) degree program which is scheduled to start in May 2010.
