Rocky Mountain University of Health Professions (RMUoHP) appoints Director of Admissions.

RMUoHP has appointed Bryce E. Greenberg, MBA/GM as Director of Admissions. Mr. Greenberg received his Masters of Business Administration degree from the University of Phoenix.

“I have known Bryce for years,” said Dr. Larry Banks, Vice President of Academic Affairs/Provost of RMUoHP. “He is highly experienced in enrollment management, and he has passion for student success. I am excited to have Bryce join our admissions team.”

Mr. Greenberg has over 11 years of extensive expertise in higher education and has worked with universities and colleges in admissions and operations. Mr. Greenberg has consulted with private non-profit and for-profit Universities and Colleges in the areas of enrollment management and student-centeredness services. Mr. Greenberg is a member of Higher Education Professionals and the National Association of Graduate Admissions Professionals.

About Rocky Mountain University of Health Professions:

Utilizing both a traditional and non-traditional model RMUoHP offers doctoral degrees for current and future healthcare providers and educators, including athletic trainers, nurses, occupational therapists, physical therapists, exercise physiologists, and chiropractors. RMUoHP utilizes a non-traditional model for the Doctor of Science (DSc) degree in Clinical Electrophysiology, Doctor of Philosophy (PhD) degree in Health Promotion & Wellness, Pediatric Science, Orthopaedic & Sports Science, Nursing, and Athletic Training, a Doctor of Nursing Practice (DNP) degree for nurse practitioners, and transitional Doctor of Physical Therapy (DPT) and Occupational Therapy (OTD) degree programs. The non-traditional model enables students to complete advanced degrees without relocating. Curricula emphasize specialized education in advanced clinical, research, and academic areas. The entry-level Doctor of Physical Therapy (DPT) degree program is offered through the traditional model.
