Provo, UT – June 8, 2009

Rocky Mountain University of Health Professions to celebrate its 10th anniversary.

Rocky Mountain University of Health Professions (RMUoHP) is pleased to announce the celebration of its 10th anniversary with an Open House to be held on Friday, July 31 from 5:00 to 7:00 p.m. The event will be held on RMUoHP's Provo, Utah campus, and will include an introduction by university founders, including Dr. Richard P. Nielsen, President of RMUoHP, a question and answer session, guided tours of the campus by faculty and staff, and refreshments.

RMUoHP is delighted to invite local healthcare leaders, government members, academia, and the press, to celebrate along with our distinguished students, alumni, faculty, and staff.

About Rocky Mountain University of Health Professions:

RMUoHP offers doctoral degrees for current and future healthcare providers and educators, including athletic trainers, physical therapists, nurses, and occupational therapists. RMUoHP's non-traditional model enables students to complete advanced degrees without relocating. Curricula emphasize specialized education in advanced clinical, research, and academic areas. RMUoHP is currently developing a residential Doctor of Physical Therapy (DPT) degree program which is scheduled to start in May 2010.
