Graduate Program Director receives prestigious appointment.

Rocky Mountain University of Health Professions (RMUoHP) is pleased to announce that Graduate Program Director for the RN to MSN program, Sandra Pennington, PhD, RN, participated in a one-day educational and information exchange meeting to study cardiovascular health in Kentucky on invitation of Kentucky Lieutenant Governor, Daniel Mongiardo. The committee discussed the effects of cardiovascular health problems on the state's budget, priority considerations to combat the disease, and what strategies should be highlighted for legislative action to reduce health problems associated with cardiovascular disease.

About Rocky Mountain University of Health Professions:

RMUoHP offers master's and doctoral degrees for healthcare professionals. A master's degree is offered through the Master of Science in Nursing (RN to MSN) program. Doctoral degrees are offered to athletic trainers, physical therapists, nurses, occupational therapists, and other healthcare providers and educators. RMUoHP's non-traditional model enables students to complete advanced degrees without relocating. Curricula emphasize specialized education in advanced clinical, research, and academic areas.
